

SSMC won 2013 Workplace Safety and Health Performance Award – Silver

SSMC received SILVER for Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) Performance Awards in 2013. Close to 1,400 winners and industry leaders across various sectors celebrated the best in Workplace Safety and Health at Singapore's Marina Bay Sands Grand Ballroom on 30-Jul-13. This year, 442 applications submitted and of these, 192 stood out as clear winners. SSMC is one of the 62 recipients receiving the WSH Performance Award, which is recognize companies that have performed well in safety and health through the implementation of sound safety and health management systems and processes.

Guest of Honour Dr Amy Koh,
Minister of State for Health and Manpower

Award was received by Collin Tan on behalf of SSMC Management and WSH members

WSH members from Quality & Reliability Assurance, ISEP, Diffusion, Etch and Manufacturing attended the ceremony together with Collin Tan, Senior Director of Facilities, Industrial Safety and Environmental Protection & Security (centre in suit) and Mr. Chia Beng Chye, VP of Quality Systems & Information Management (right most)

"Think Safety, Think Family" is an integral part of how we conduct business at SSMC. We have complemented this with Behavioral-Based Safety Program whereby, we understand and try to change employee's behavior to prevent accidents from happening. Basically it is a matter of influencing people to do the right thing at the right time, ALL THE TIME so as to bring our Safety Performance to the next level." Mr. Collin Tan, Senior Director of Facilities, Industrial Safety and Environmental Protection & Security

"Employees are valuable assets to our company; as Value people is one of our key core values in SSMC. Winning this WSH Performance Silver Award reflects that we are going in the right direction in achieving Safety as our No.1 priority. More importantly, I would like to remind all our employees that in whatever we do, safety should always be on our minds, because at the end of each day, our family members and loved ones will be waiting for us to come home safely." Mr. Jagadish CV. CEO of SSMC.