

SSMC Awards 6 Companies at 2014 Supplier Day

Mr. Jagadish, CEO of SSMC (Centre) honours all SSMC's outstanding suppliers (from Left to Right): LG Siltron (Mr Kim In-ki), Gulf Chemical (Eric Li), Minerav Works (Andy Ang), MEMC (GP Mettifogo), EZ Semiconductor Services (Albert Wang), EMKTechnologies (Terry Yap), Opal Chemicals (Patrick Liao),

On 9 May 2014, SSMC held its Supplier Day to pay tribute to 6 suppliers who made a significant impact to SSMC's competitiveness in 2013. Materials, parts repair and maintenance suppliers were present among 40 participants including our management team who participated the celebration dinner. Among these 6 award recipients were our valued partners who are an integral part of our business and supply chain; and who continue to deliver technology, innovative and cost effective solutions to meet our needs; and those we work closely with in the development of new capabilities, new solutions from inception to successful conversion and ramp.

Out of more than 200 suppliers from around the world in the fields, these best-of-the best 6 suppliers are recognized for their Outstanding performance in 3 award categories:

- Best Supplier Award:
 LG Siltron
 Gulf Chemical
 Minerav Works
- Recognition Awards:
 EMK Technologies,
 MEMC,
 EZ Technologies

In the award ceremony speech, Mr. Jagadish, CEO of SSMC, encouraged all suppliers to continue the transformation towards the global best in class organizations. He values the effort in every collaboration and partnership project. With the “together we raise value” spirit, we work continue together in SSMC’s key thrusts for Automotive & HPMS (High Performance Mixed Signal) markets where customers require nothing but the top quality and superb services to win.

At the finale, Ms. Kelly Sofian, Senior Director, Human Resources and Purchasing of SSMC, concluded with a toast to all award recipients for Win-Win partnership.
